

Latin America and Africa

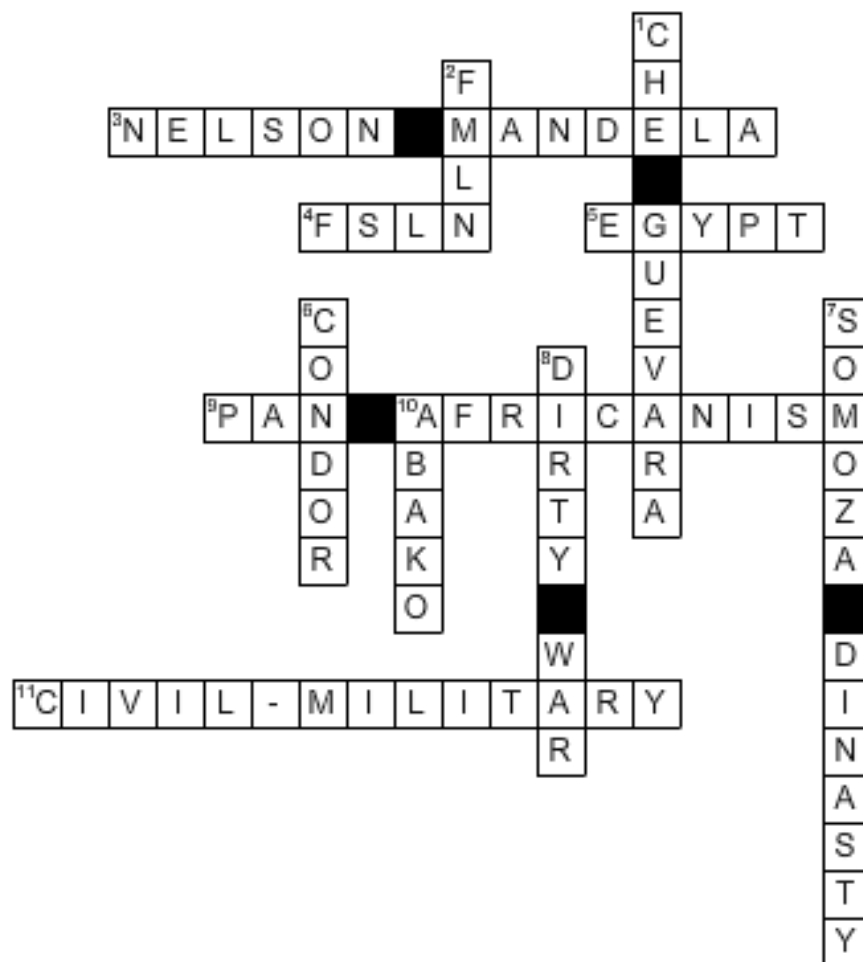

Horizontal

Vertical

- | | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 3. President of South Africa who fought for human rights in his country. 4. The guerilla force opposing the dictatorship of the Somoza dynasty. 5. It was a British protectorate during the first half of the 20th century. 9. It is an ideopolitical concept based on unity and belonging to one race. 11. It refers to the military regime's initial use of relatively powerless civilian president as the head of state | 1. He helped to overthrow the government in the Cuban revolution. He was born in Argentina. 2. It is a coalition of several groups of left-hand in El Salvador. 6. It is a plan of the US government to suppress all movements for the socialist regimes in Latin America. 7. They ruled Nicaragua from 1934 to 1979 through the political rotation between different presidents. 8. It is a civil-military dictatorship in Argentina. 10. Alliance des Bakongo, in Congo. |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Latin America and Africa

Horizontal

3. President of South Africa who fought for human rights in his country.
4. The guerilla force opposing the dictatorship of the Somoza dynasty.
5. It was a British protectorate during the first half of the 20th century.
9. It is an ideopolitical concept based on unity and belonging to one race.
11. It refers to the military regime's initial use of relatively powerless civilian president as the head of state

Vertical

1. He helped to overthrow the government in the Cuban revolution. He was born in Argentina.
2. It is a coalition of several groups of left-hand in El Salvador.
6. It is a plan of the US government to suppress all movements for the socialist regimes in Latin America.
7. They ruled Nicaragua from 1934 to 1979 through the political rotation between different presidents.
8. It is a civil-military dictatorship in Argentina.
10. Alliance des Bakongo, in Congo.